

Here we go!

Since you are holding this book, it means you are our “WINE HERO” and we hope we will satisfy your wine taste buds.

We are constantly exploring the wine world for classic, cool and unique wines and we think it is important to have a selection for each taste and budget. Maybe this list is not the most traditional, but we are very proud of it!

Because we have a limited capacity in the wine fridge, many of the bottles are laying in our wine cellar. This means some of the white wines will need a short moment to get more chilled. But we promise you, the wait will be worth it and we are thankful for your patience.

Some of the wines are rare or sold out quickly. So, in case your favourite bottle is no longer available, we can always suggest a nice alternative ;).

We're glad you're here!
